

Best Practice-1

Celebration of Special Days

Goal:

- 1) To create awareness among students regarding life and work of great personalities.
- 2) To make students aware about importance of special days.
- 3) To enhance students global outlook.
- 4) To inculcate the moral and social values among students.

The Context:

Young generation are the pillars of the nation. Educational institutions play an important role in building up these pillars. In this twenty first century the young generation lives in a peculiar psychological pressure due to competitions, technology driven life, complex relations and stress. In such situation it is essential to give information of special and important days to students which will motivate students to face the issues and go ahead with strength and inspiration. As the life and work of great personalities, inspire the students to work with quality.

The Practice:

In diverse situations in life and be a person of principles with moral and social values. The celebrations have become an integral part of joyful learning, community building and thought provoking process. Different special days related to great personalities, issues are celebrated in the college. Students are exposed to the essence of importance and special events, issues through the various competitions. The principal and staff encourage the students to participate in all celebrations of special days to learn the history and to link the past with present. Various activities are organized on the day, such as different competitions-quiz, lectures, debates, rangoli, slogan, poster making, recipes preparation exhibition etc in which students and staff participate. College has a special committee for conducting these activities and celebrating days.

Evidence of Success:

Students develop leadership skills, team spirits, decision making and bond between students and issues. Day becomes aware about social concern and responsibility. Students get platform for exhibiting their literacy, creative skills by participating in various competitions. Students have expressed many times that they are motivated by specific events in the life of their great personalities and got the insight from them. All students are benefitted by this activity conducted in the college.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

Time in day to day schedule, but it is managed skilfully by the staff and students. Experts are to interact with students, minimum financial resources, participants, students' photos, personalities etc. In exciting this best practice problem encountered of time management in day to day schedule of college function. This is managed skilfully by the academic and concerned committee and students. Local and easy availability of experts to interact with the students is also faced many times, where the relations as with GOs, NGOs, organizations, media help and they are invited as personalities from their field are always cooperative and interpret in interaction with the students in the college. This best practice needs minimum research such as photos of their great personality, stationary and other materials to conduct the program and the competitions which are made available by the principal and office. So this best practice is executed successfully.
